

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 1: Advent of Europeans & Portuguese Supremacy in Indian Waters

Portuguese Discovery of Sea Route 1498

Core Analytical Focus: Portuguese Discovery of Sea Route 1498 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 1 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 1: Advent of Europeans & Portuguese Supremacy in Indian Waters

Almeida & Albuquerque Policies

Core Analytical Focus: Almeida & Albuquerque Policies in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 2 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 1: Advent of Europeans & Portuguese Supremacy in Indian Waters

Cartaz System & Feitorias

Core Analytical Focus: Cartaz System & Feitorias in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 3 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 1: Advent of Europeans & Portuguese Supremacy in Indian Waters

Dutch & English Rivals

Core Analytical Focus: Dutch & English Rivals in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 4 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 1: Advent of Europeans & Portuguese Supremacy in Indian Waters

Decline of Portuguese Power in India

Core Analytical Focus: Decline of Portuguese Power in India in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 5 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 2: British Conquest of Bengal & Expansionist Warfare

Battle of Plassey (1757) Dynamics

Core Analytical Focus: Battle of Plassey (1757) Dynamics in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 6 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 2: British Conquest of Bengal & Expansionist Warfare

Mir Jafar & Mir Qasim Treaties

Core Analytical Focus: Mir Jafar & Mir Qasim Treaties in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 7 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 2: British Conquest of Bengal & Expansionist Warfare

Battle of Buxar (1764) & Diwani Rights

Core Analytical Focus: Battle of Buxar (1764) & Diwani Rights in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 8 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 2: British Conquest of Bengal & Expansionist Warfare

Dual System of Clive (1765-1772)

Core Analytical Focus: Dual System of Clive (1765-1772) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 9 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 2: British Conquest of Bengal & Expansionist Warfare

Economic Plunder of Bengal Treasury

Core Analytical Focus: Economic Plunder of Bengal Treasury in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 10 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 3: Constitutional & Administrative Evolutions (1773-1833)

Regulating Act 1773 Provisions

Core Analytical Focus: Regulating Act 1773 Provisions in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 11 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 3: Constitutional & Administrative Evolutions (1773-1833)

Supreme Court at Calcutta 1774

Core Analytical Focus: Supreme Court at Calcutta 1774 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 12 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 3: Constitutional & Administrative Evolutions (1773-1833)

Pitts India Act 1784 & Board of Control

Core Analytical Focus: Pitts India Act 1784 & Board of Control in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 13 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 3: Constitutional & Administrative Evolutions (1773-1833)

Charter Act 1813 Trade Monopoly End

Core Analytical Focus: Charter Act 1813 Trade Monopoly End in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 14 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 3: Constitutional & Administrative Evolutions (1773-1833)

Charter Act 1833 Governor General of India

Core Analytical Focus: Charter Act 1833 Governor General of India in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 15 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 4: Colonial Agrarian Policies & Rural Transformation

Permanent Settlement of Bengal 1793

Core Analytical Focus: Permanent Settlement of Bengal 1793 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 16 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 4: Colonial Agrarian Policies & Rural Transformation

Sunset Law & Zamindari Rights

Core Analytical Focus: Sunset Law & Zamindari Rights in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 17 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 4: Colonial Agrarian Policies & Rural Transformation

Ryotwari System of Thomas Munro

Core Analytical Focus: Ryotwari System of Thomas Munro in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 18 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 4: Colonial Agrarian Policies & Rural Transformation

Mahalwari Settlement of Holt Mackenzie

Core Analytical Focus: Mahalwari Settlement of Holt Mackenzie in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 19 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 4: Colonial Agrarian Policies & Rural Transformation

Commercialization of Cash Crops & Indebtedness

Core Analytical Focus: Commercialization of Cash Crops & Indebtedness in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 20 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 5: Colonial Economy, Famines & Drain of Wealth

Dadabhai Naoroji Poverty & Un-British Rule

Core Analytical Focus: Dadabhai Naoroji Poverty & Un-British Rule in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 21 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 5: Colonial Economy, Famines & Drain of Wealth

Drain of Wealth Components (Home Charges)

Core Analytical Focus: Drain of Wealth Components (Home Charges) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 22 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 5: Colonial Economy, Famines & Drain of Wealth

De-industrialization of Traditional Handlooms

Core Analytical Focus: De-industrialization of Traditional Handlooms in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 23 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 5: Colonial Economy, Famines & Drain of Wealth

Commercial Policies & One-Way Free Trade

Core Analytical Focus: Commercial Policies & One-Way Free Trade in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 24 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 5: Colonial Economy, Famines & Drain of Wealth

Major Famines (1770, 1866, 1876, 1899) & Famine Codes

Core Analytical Focus: Major Famines (1770, 1866, 1876, 1899) & Famine Codes in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 25 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 6: The Great Uprising of 1857: Fire Across North India

Political Causes: Doctrine of Lapse

Core Analytical Focus: Political Causes: Doctrine of Lapse in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 26 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 6: The Great Uprising of 1857: Fire Across North India

Military & Enfield Cartridge Discontent

Core Analytical Focus: Military & Enfield Cartridge Discontent in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 27 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 6: The Great Uprising of 1857: Fire Across North India

Outbreak at Meerut & Capture of Delhi

Core Analytical Focus: Outbreak at Meerut & Capture of Delhi in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 28 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 6: The Great Uprising of 1857: Fire Across North India

Bihar Centers: Babu Veer Kunwar Singh Jagdishpur

Core Analytical Focus: Bihar Centers: Babu Veer Kunwar Singh Jagdishpur in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 29 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 6: The Great Uprising of 1857: Fire Across North India

Consequences: Government of India Act 1858

Core Analytical Focus: Consequences: Government of India Act 1858 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 30 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 7: Socio-Religious Reform Movements & Renaissance

Raja Ram Mohan Roy & Brahmo Samaj

Core Analytical Focus: Raja Ram Mohan Roy & Brahmo Samaj in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 31 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 7: Socio-Religious Reform Movements & Renaissance

Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar & Widow Remarriage

Core Analytical Focus: Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar & Widow Remarriage in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 32 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 7: Socio-Religious Reform Movements & Renaissance

Swami Dayananda Saraswati & Arya Samaj

Core Analytical Focus: Swami Dayananda Saraswati & Arya Samaj in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 33 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 7: Socio-Religious Reform Movements & Renaissance

Swami Vivekananda & Ramakrishna Mission

Core Analytical Focus: Swami Vivekananda & Ramakrishna Mission in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 34 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 7: Socio-Religious Reform Movements & Renaissance

Aligarh Movement: Sir Syed Ahmad Khan

Core Analytical Focus: Aligarh Movement: Sir Syed Ahmad Khan in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 35 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 8: Peasant Revolts & Tribal Resistance Struggles

Santhal Hool 1855-56 (Sidhu & Kanhu)

Core Analytical Focus: Santhal Hool 1855-56 (Sidhu & Kanhu) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 36 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 8: Peasant Revolts & Tribal Resistance Struggles

Munda Ulgulan & Birsa Munda (1899-1900)

Core Analytical Focus: Munda Ulgulan & Birsa Munda (1899-1900) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 37 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 8: Peasant Revolts & Tribal Resistance Struggles

Indigo Revolt 1859 (Neel Darpan)

Core Analytical Focus: Indigo Revolt 1859 (Neel Darpan) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 38 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 8: Peasant Revolts & Tribal Resistance Struggles

Pabna Agrarian Leagues 1873

Core Analytical Focus: Pabna Agrarian Leagues 1873 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 39 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 8: Peasant Revolts & Tribal Resistance Struggles

Deccan Riots 1875 & Agriculturists Relief Act

Core Analytical Focus: Deccan Riots 1875 & Agriculturists Relief Act in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 40 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 9: Emergence of Nationalist Consciousness & Early Press

Vernacular Press Act 1878 of Lord Lytton

Core Analytical Focus: Vernacular Press Act 1878 of Lord Lytton in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 41 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 9: Emergence of Nationalist Consciousness & Early Press

Arms Act 1878 & Ilbert Bill Controversy 1883

Core Analytical Focus: Arms Act 1878 & Ilbert Bill Controversy 1883 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 42 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 9: Emergence of Nationalist Consciousness & Early Press

Indian Association 1876 (Surendranath Banerjee)

Core Analytical Focus: Indian Association 1876 (Surendranath Banerjee) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 43 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 9: Emergence of Nationalist Consciousness & Early Press

Role of Modern Education & Print Media

Core Analytical Focus: Role of Modern Education & Print Media in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 44 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 9: Emergence of Nationalist Consciousness & Early Press

First Generation Intelligentsia & National Awakening

Core Analytical Focus: First Generation Intelligentsia & National Awakening in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 45 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 10: Indian National Congress: Foundation & Moderate Phase (1885-1905)

Founding Session at Bombay Dec 1885

Core Analytical Focus: Founding Session at Bombay Dec 1885 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 46 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 10: Indian National Congress: Foundation & Moderate Phase (1885-1905)

Safety Valve Theory vs Lightning Conductor

Core Analytical Focus: Safety Valve Theory vs Lightning Conductor in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 47 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 10: Indian National Congress: Foundation & Moderate Phase (1885-1905)

Moderate Ideology: 3 Ps (Prayer, Petition, Protest)

Core Analytical Focus: Moderate Ideology: 3 Ps (Prayer, Petition, Protest) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 48 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 10: Indian National Congress: Foundation & Moderate Phase (1885-1905)

Dadabhai Naoroji, Gokhale, Pherozeshah Mehta

Core Analytical Focus: Dadabhai Naoroji, Gokhale, Pherozeshah Mehta in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 49 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 10: Indian National Congress: Foundation & Moderate Phase (1885-1905)

Indian Councils Act 1892 & Achievements

Core Analytical Focus: Indian Councils Act 1892 & Achievements in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 50 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 11: The Extremist Surge & Assertive Nationalism

Ideological Divergence: Lal-Bal-Pal & Aurobindo

Core Analytical Focus: Ideological Divergence: Lal-Bal-Pal & Aurobindo in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 51 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 11: The Extremist Surge & Assertive Nationalism

Curzon Reactionary Policies (Calcutta Corp, Universities Act)

Core Analytical Focus: Curzon Reactionary Policies (Calcutta Corp, Universities Act) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 52 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 11: The Extremist Surge & Assertive Nationalism

Swadeshi Philosophy & Boycott Doctrine

Core Analytical Focus: Swadeshi Philosophy & Boycott Doctrine in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 53 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 11: The Extremist Surge & Assertive Nationalism

National Education Council 1906

Core Analytical Focus: National Education Council 1906 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 54 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 11: The Extremist Surge & Assertive Nationalism

Surat Split 1907 & Rash Behari Ghosh Session

Core Analytical Focus: Surat Split 1907 & Rash Behari Ghosh Session in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 55 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 12: Partition of Bengal (1905) & The Swadeshi Movement

Curzon Bengal Partition Decision Oct 16, 1905

Core Analytical Focus: Curzon Bengal Partition Decision Oct 16, 1905 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 56 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 12: Partition of Bengal (1905) & The Swadeshi Movement

Raksha Bandhan Day & Bande Mataram

Core Analytical Focus: Raksha Bandhan Day & Bande Mataram in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 57 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 12: Partition of Bengal (1905) & The Swadeshi Movement

Swadeshi Enterprise: Bengal Chemicals & Swadeshi Steam

Core Analytical Focus: Swadeshi Enterprise: Bengal Chemicals & Swadeshi Steam in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 58 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 12: Partition of Bengal (1905) & The Swadeshi Movement

Movement Reaches Punjab & Maharashtra

Core Analytical Focus: Movement Reaches Punjab & Maharashtra in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 59 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 12: Partition of Bengal (1905) & The Swadeshi Movement

Annulment of Partition 1911 & Shift to Delhi

Core Analytical Focus: Annulment of Partition 1911 & Shift to Delhi in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 60 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 13: Revolutionary Nationalism: First Phase (1907-1917)

Anushilan Samiti & Yugantar in Bengal

Core Analytical Focus: Anushilan Samiti & Yugantar in Bengal in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 61 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 13: Revolutionary Nationalism: First Phase (1907-1917)

Alipore Bomb Conspiracy Case 1908

Core Analytical Focus: Alipore Bomb Conspiracy Case 1908 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 62 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 13: Revolutionary Nationalism: First Phase (1907-1917)

Abhinav Bharat Society (V.D. Savarkar)

Core Analytical Focus: Abhinav Bharat Society (V.D. Savarkar) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 63 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 13: Revolutionary Nationalism: First Phase (1907-1917)

Ghadar Movement 1913 in San Francisco

Core Analytical Focus: Ghadar Movement 1913 in San Francisco in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 64 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 13: Revolutionary Nationalism: First Phase (1907-1917)

Komagata Maru Incident 1914 & Berlin Committee

Core Analytical Focus: Komagata Maru Incident 1914 & Berlin Committee in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 65 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 14: World War I, Home Rule Movements & Lucknow Pact

Impact of WWI on Indian Economy & Politics

Core Analytical Focus: Impact of WWI on Indian Economy & Politics in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 66 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 14: World War I, Home Rule Movements & Lucknow Pact

Tilak Home Rule League (Maharashtra/Karnataka)

Core Analytical Focus: Tilak Home Rule League (Maharashtra/Karnataka) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 67 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 14: World War I, Home Rule Movements & Lucknow Pact

Annie Besant All-India Home Rule League

Core Analytical Focus: Annie Besant All-India Home Rule League in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 68 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 14: World War I, Home Rule Movements & Lucknow Pact

Lucknow Session 1916: Moderates & Extremists Reunited

Core Analytical Focus: Lucknow Session 1916: Moderates & Extremists Reunited in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 69 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 14: World War I, Home Rule Movements & Lucknow Pact

Congress-League Pact 1916 & Separate Electorates

Core Analytical Focus: Congress-League Pact 1916 & Separate Electorates in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 70 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 15: Advent of Mahatma Gandhi & Grassroots Experiments

Gandhi in South Africa: Phoenix & Tolstoy Farm

Core Analytical Focus: Gandhi in South Africa: Phoenix & Tolstoy Farm in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 71 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 15: Advent of Mahatma Gandhi & Grassroots Experiments

Return to India 1915 & Gokhale Mentorship

Core Analytical Focus: Return to India 1915 & Gokhale Mentorship in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 72 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 15: Advent of Mahatma Gandhi & Grassroots Experiments

Champaran Satyagraha 1917 (Bihar Tinkathia System)

Core Analytical Focus: Champaran Satyagraha 1917 (Bihar Tinkathia System) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 73 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 15: Advent of Mahatma Gandhi & Grassroots Experiments

Ahmedabad Mill Strike 1918 (First Hunger Strike)

Core Analytical Focus: Ahmedabad Mill Strike 1918 (First Hunger Strike) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 74 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 15: Advent of Mahatma Gandhi & Grassroots Experiments

Kheda Satyagraha 1918 (Tax Remission Battle)

Core Analytical Focus: Kheda Satyagraha 1918 (Tax Remission Battle) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 75 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 16: Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh & Khilafat Movement

Anarchical & Revolutionary Crimes Act 1919

Core Analytical Focus: Anarchical & Revolutionary Crimes Act 1919 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 76 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 16: Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh & Khilafat Movement

Jallianwala Bagh Massacre April 13, 1919 (General Dyer)

Core Analytical Focus: Jallianwala Bagh Massacre April 13, 1919 (General Dyer) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 77 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 16: Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh & Khilafat Movement

Hunter Committee & Rabindranath Knighthood Renunciation

Core Analytical Focus: Hunter Committee & Rabindranath Knighthood Renunciation in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 78 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 16: Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh & Khilafat Movement

Khilafat Committee (Ali Brothers & Maulana Azad)

Core Analytical Focus: Khilafat Committee (Ali Brothers & Maulana Azad) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 79 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 16: Rowlatt Act, Jallianwala Bagh & Khilafat Movement

Non-Cooperation Resolution Nagpur 1920

Core Analytical Focus: Non-Cooperation Resolution Nagpur 1920 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 80 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 17: Non-Cooperation Movement (1920-1922) & Aftermath

Boycott of Titles, Schools, Courts & Foreign Cloth

Core Analytical Focus: Boycott of Titles, Schools, Courts & Foreign Cloth in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 81 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 17: Non-Cooperation Movement (1920-1922) & Aftermath

Picketing of Liquor Shops & Charkha Movement

Core Analytical Focus: Picketing of Liquor Shops & Charkha Movement in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 82 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 17: Non-Cooperation Movement (1920-1922) & Aftermath

Prince of Wales Visit Boycott 1921

Core Analytical Focus: Prince of Wales Visit Boycott 1921 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 83 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 17: Non-Cooperation Movement (1920-1922) & Aftermath

Chauri Chaura Incident Feb 5, 1922

Core Analytical Focus: Chauri Chaura Incident Feb 5, 1922 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 84 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 17: Non-Cooperation Movement (1920-1922) & Aftermath

Withdrawal of Movement & Bardoli Resolution

Core Analytical Focus: Withdrawal of Movement & Bardoli Resolution in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 85 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 18: Swarajists, No-Changers & Revolutionary Phase II

Swaraj Party 1923 (C.R. Das & Motilal Nehru)

Core Analytical Focus: Swaraj Party 1923 (C.R. Das & Motilal Nehru) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 86 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 18: Swarajists, No-Changers & Revolutionary Phase II

Council Entry vs Constructive Work

Core Analytical Focus: Council Entry vs Constructive Work in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 87 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 18: Swarajists, No-Changers & Revolutionary Phase II

Hindustan Republican Association (HRA) 1924

Core Analytical Focus: Hindustan Republican Association (HRA) 1924 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 88 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 18: Swarajists, No-Changers & Revolutionary Phase II

Kakori Train Action 1925 (Bismil, Ashfaqulla, Roshan)

Core Analytical Focus: Kakori Train Action 1925 (Bismil, Ashfaqulla, Roshan) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 89 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 18: Swarajists, No-Changers & Revolutionary Phase II

HSRA 1928: Bhagat Singh, Chandrashekhar Azad & Saunders

Core Analytical Focus: HSRA 1928: Bhagat Singh, Chandrashekhar Azad & Saunders in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 90 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 19: Simon Commission, Nehru Report & Purna Swaraj

All-White Simon Commission Boycott 1927

Core Analytical Focus: All-White Simon Commission Boycott 1927 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 91 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 19: Simon Commission, Nehru Report & Purna Swaraj

Lala Lajpat Rai Martyrdom 1928

Core Analytical Focus: Lala Lajpat Rai Martyrdom 1928 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 92 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 19: Simon Commission, Nehru Report & Purna Swaraj

Nehru Report 1928: Fundamental Rights & Dominion Status

Core Analytical Focus: Nehru Report 1928: Fundamental Rights & Dominion Status in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 93 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 19: Simon Commission, Nehru Report & Purna Swaraj

Jinnah 14 Points 1929

Core Analytical Focus: Jinnah 14 Points 1929 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 94 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 19: Simon Commission, Nehru Report & Purna Swaraj

Lahore Session Dec 1929: Purna Swaraj Declaration

Core Analytical Focus: Lahore Session Dec 1929: Purna Swaraj Declaration in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 95 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 20: Civil Disobedience Movement & Salt Satyagraha

Gandhi 11 Demands to Lord Irwin

Core Analytical Focus: Gandhi 11 Demands to Lord Irwin in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 96 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 20: Civil Disobedience Movement & Salt Satyagraha

Historic Dandi March (March 12 - April 6, 1930)

Core Analytical Focus: Historic Dandi March (March 12 - April 6, 1930) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 97 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 20: Civil Disobedience Movement & Salt Satyagraha

Salt Law Defiance Across Coasts (Vedaranyam, Dharsana)

Core Analytical Focus: Salt Law Defiance Across Coasts (Vedaranyam, Dharsana) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 98 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 20: Civil Disobedience Movement & Salt Satyagraha

Frontier Gandhi: Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan & Khudai Khidmatgar

Core Analytical Focus: Frontier Gandhi: Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan & Khudai Khidmatgar in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 99 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 20: Civil Disobedience Movement & Salt Satyagraha

Gandhi-Irwin Pact March 1931 & Karachi Resolution

Core Analytical Focus: Gandhi-Irwin Pact March 1931 & Karachi Resolution in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 100 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 21: Round Table Conferences & Communal Award

First Round Table Conference 1930

Core Analytical Focus: First Round Table Conference 1930 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 101 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 21: Round Table Conferences & Communal Award

Second RTC 1931 (Gandhi Sole Congress Delegate)

Core Analytical Focus: Second RTC 1931 (Gandhi Sole Congress Delegate) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 102 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 21: Round Table Conferences & Communal Award

Ramsay MacDonald Communal Award 1932

Core Analytical Focus: Ramsay MacDonald Communal Award 1932 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 103 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 21: Round Table Conferences & Communal Award

Yerwada Fast & Poona Pact (Gandhi-Ambedkar 1932)

Core Analytical Focus: Yerwada Fast & Poona Pact (Gandhi-Ambedkar 1932) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 104 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 21: Round Table Conferences & Communal Award

Third RTC 1932 & White Paper on Reforms

Core Analytical Focus: Third RTC 1932 & White Paper on Reforms in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 105 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 22: Government of India Act 1935 & 1937 Elections

All-India Federation & Provincial Autonomy

Core Analytical Focus: All-India Federation & Provincial Autonomy in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 106 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 22: Government of India Act 1935 & 1937 Elections

Dyarchy Abolished in Provinces, Introduced at Center

Core Analytical Focus: Dyarchy Abolished in Provinces, Introduced at Center in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 107 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 22: Government of India Act 1935 & 1937 Elections

Federal Court & Reserve Bank Establishment

Core Analytical Focus: Federal Court & Reserve Bank Establishment in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 108 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 22: Government of India Act 1935 & 1937 Elections

1937 Provincial Elections & Congress Ministries

Core Analytical Focus: 1937 Provincial Elections & Congress Ministries in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 109 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 22: Government of India Act 1935 & 1937 Elections

Resignation of Congress Ministries 1939 (WWII Entry)

Core Analytical Focus: Resignation of Congress Ministries 1939 (WWII Entry) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 110 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 23: World War II Crisis, Cripps Mission & Quit India

August Offer 1940 & Individual Satyagraha

Core Analytical Focus: August Offer 1940 & Individual Satyagraha in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 111 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 23: World War II Crisis, Cripps Mission & Quit India

Cripps Mission 1942: Post-Dated Cheque

Core Analytical Focus: Cripps Mission 1942: Post-Dated Cheque in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 112 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 23: World War II Crisis, Cripps Mission & Quit India

All-India Congress Committee Gwalior Bombing

Core Analytical Focus: All-India Congress Committee Gwalior Bombing in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 113 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 23: World War II Crisis, Cripps Mission & Quit India

Do or Die Call August 8, 1942

Core Analytical Focus: Do or Die Call August 8, 1942 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 114 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 23: World War II Crisis, Cripps Mission & Quit India

Underground Networks (Aruna Asaf Ali, Usha Mehta, J.P. Narayan)

Core Analytical Focus: Underground Networks (Aruna Asaf Ali, Usha Mehta, J.P. Narayan) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 115 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 24: INA, Naval Mutiny & Partition Independence (1945-1947)

Subhas Chandra Bose & Indian National Army (Azad Hind Fauj)

Core Analytical Focus: Subhas Chandra Bose & Indian National Army (Azad Hind Fauj) in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 116 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 24: INA, Naval Mutiny & Partition Independence (1945-1947)

INA Trials at Red Fort 1945

Core Analytical Focus: INA Trials at Red Fort 1945 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 117 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 24: INA, Naval Mutiny & Partition Independence (1945-1947)

Royal Indian Navy (RIN) Mutiny Feb 1946

Core Analytical Focus: Royal Indian Navy (RIN) Mutiny Feb 1946 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 118 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 24: INA, Naval Mutiny & Partition Independence (1945-1947)

Cabinet Mission Plan 1946 & Constituent Assembly

Core Analytical Focus: Cabinet Mission Plan 1946 & Constituent Assembly in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 119 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.

Modern Indian History – Comprehensive Revision Notes

Chapter 24: INA, Naval Mutiny & Partition Independence (1945-1947)

Mountbatten Plan June 3, 1947 & Indian Independence Act 1947

Core Analytical Focus: Mountbatten Plan June 3, 1947 & Indian Independence Act 1947 in the context of civil services examination syllabus (BPSC & UPSC CSE GS-I).

Historical Significance: This phase represented crucial turning points shaping the socio-political destiny of modern India and constitutional statecraft.

Key Structural Pillars: 1. Institutional Framework and Imperial Policies; 2. Popular Resistance and Grassroots Participation; 3. Socio-Economic Repercussions across Agrarian and Urban strata; 4. Long-term Constitutional and Administrative Legacies.

Comparative Examination Relevance: Frequently tested in Prelims through assertion-reasoning, timeline chronology, and multi-statement options, and in Mains GS-I for critical analytical perspectives on colonial exploitation and nationalist mobilization strategies.

Official Syllabus Compendium Reference: Document Page 120 of 120. Verified IKSHOVIA Learning Asset.